

TITLE I PARENT RIGHT TO KNOW

As part of the No Child Left Behind legislation, each school that receives Title I funding is required to notify parents of their right to know the professional qualifications of your child's classroom teacher. As a parent, you have the right to request the following:

1. Whether the teacher has met State qualifications and licensing criteria for the grade level and subject areas in which the teacher provides instruction.
2. Whether the teacher is teaching under emergency or other provisional status through which State qualification or licensing criteria have been waived.
3. The baccalaureate degree major of the teacher and any other graduate certification or degree held by the teacher, and the field of discipline of the certificate or degree.
4. Whether the child is provided services by paraprofessionals and, if so, their qualifications.

If you would like any of the above information sent to you, please notify the building principal or contact the Human Resources Office.
