

Our Focus is Learning:
 We see every child
learning every day!

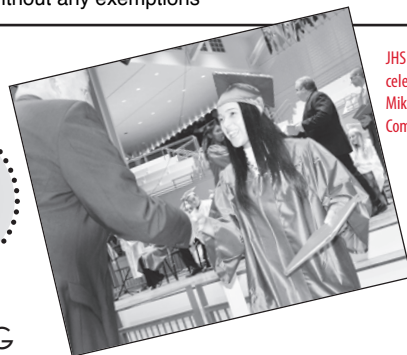

Fast Facts: 2018-19 JPS Budget Basics

Proposed 2018-19 Budget	$86,228,702
Budget-to-Budget Increase	$1,280,482
Estimated Tax Levy	$14,641,567
% Change in Tax Levy	0%
Estimated Tax Rate (using 2016 assessed values)	$19.56 per thousand
Estimated Tax Bill*	$978

*Estimated tax bill assumes a house valued at $55,000 without any exemptions

What you will see on the ballot...

- 2018-19 Proposed Budget $86,228,702
- Elect Two Board of Education Candidates
- Two Propositions:
 - *Establish Capital Reserve Fund
 - *Approve Student BOE Member

JHS graduate, Haley Leeper, celebrated with Principal Mike McElrath at the 2017 Commencement Ceremony.

Budget Vote Info
Tuesday, May 15, 2018

Polls are open for registered voters from noon to 9 p.m. at Jefferson Middle School, Lincoln Elementary School and Washington Middle School.

If you have any questions about where you should vote, please contact JPS District Clerk, Jaunita Walter, at 483-4420.

JHS students performed in the school musical, Guys & Dolls. Photo by Click Photo Studios

JPS BUDGET

JAMESTOWN BOARD OF EDUCATION
 197 MARTIN ROAD
 JAMESTOWN, NY 14701
 716-483-4350

Non-Profit Org.
 U.S.Postage
 PAID
 Jamestown, NY
 14701
 Permit No. 695

ECRWSS**
 POSTAL CUSTOMER
 JAMESTOWN NY 14701

Voters to Elect Two JPS Board of Education Members

On May 15th, voters will elect two Board of Education members to serve three-year terms. There are three candidates on the ballot.

Brianne Fadale is seeking her first term on the Board of Education. She is currently a Staff Development Specialist with Erie 2 Chautauqua-Cattaraugus BOCES. She was a special education teacher at Lincoln Elementary School, as well as the girls' modified soccer coach and an assistant basketball coach at Persell Middle School. Mrs. Fadale and her husband, Tom, have two sons attending Love Elementary School and two daughters who graduated from Jamestown High School. Mrs. Fadale also is the stage manager for Rolling Hills Radio.

Daniel Johnson, an incumbent, is seeking his third term on the Board of Education. Mr. Johnson, a JHS alumnus, and his wife, Lorie, have two children, Jordan and Rachel, who are Jamestown High School graduates. Jordan is a third-year graduate student at D'Youville College in Buffalo majoring in Physical Therapy and Rachel is a freshman at D'Youville College majoring in Occupational Therapy. Mr. Johnson spent 22 years with the Jamestown Police Department, retiring in 2010, and is currently the Senior Investigator with the Chautauqua County District Attorney's Office.

Nina Karbacka, an incumbent, is seeking her second term on the Board of Education. After being active in the New York State Association of Small City School Districts for two years, Mrs. Karbacka has been nominated for Vice President. Mrs. Karbacka has a bachelor's and master's degree in music education and taught in the Jamestown Schools for 40 years. She has volunteered as a community leader serving on many boards of directors in our county. Mrs. Karbacka and her husband, Bob, are proud city residents. Their daughter, Marie, graduated with honors from Jamestown High School and is teaching in the area.

WWW.JAMESTOWNPUBLICSCHOOLS.ORG

What is JPS taxpayers' return on investment?

Most Robust Academic High School Program in the Area

Bush Elementary School first grader, Arianna Damonti, developed her spelling skills during an English Language Arts station in Nichole Mason's class.

JHS Graduates Accepted at Prestigious Colleges

Award-Winning Extracurricular Programs, including Music & Art

Premier Athletic Program Boasts 23 Boys' & Girls' Varsity Sports Teams

Qualified & Exceptional Teaching & Support Staff

The JHS Red Raider Marching Band started the crowd cheering during the JHS Varsity Football game versus Clarence. Photo by Chad Eckloff Photo Art

Well-Rounded Universal Prekindergarten Program

Unparalleled After School Programs

JPS Community Pride, Service & Collaboration

JHS Academy of Pre-Engineering, Manufacturing & Industrial Technology visited Hope's Windows to learn more about the local business & the types of career and job opportunities available in the area.